About The Resort

Enjoy the best of Cornish hospitality at the plush St Mellion International Resort, a unique blend of contemporary style and unique 4-star facilities including an AA luxury hotel, leisure centre, Elemis day spa, tennis courts, a European Tour golf course, a brasserie and an award-winning restaurant.

Situated in Cornwall, just off the A 388 north of Plymouth

Facilities

Award-winning facilities and high-quality service await you during your stay at the St Mellion International Resort. This unique UK resort on the border of Devon and Cornwall has all you need for a fabulous family holiday, a sporting event, incentive days, a wedding or a successful corporate event.

Reception

Our friendly multilingual team extend a warm welcome and look forward to assisting you in any way they can to make your stay at St Mellion International Resort a truly unforgettable experience.

Breakfast

Start your day in style at the St Mellion; you have a choice between full West Country breakfast, a lighter continental breakfast, or à la carte breakfast dishes, and a selection of fruit juices, coffees and teas.

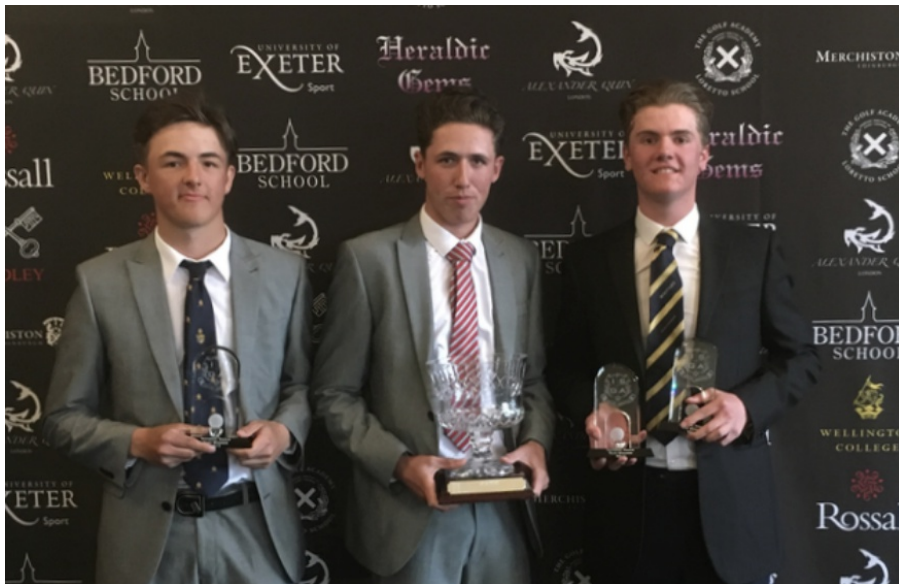

Entirely renovated as part of the extensive 2008 redevelopment programme of the St Mellion resort, the Nicklaus Course is amongst the best golf courses in Cornwall and UK. Selected to host professional tournaments such as the European Tour or the TPC, the course was originally designed by J. Hamilton Stutt

With several unique water hazards, cleverly-placed bunkers, and challenging holes, such as the run from the sixth to the ninth, the Nicklaus Golf course promises hours of fun golfing. Set in the heart of a 4-star resort offering luxury accommodation and fine dining, the Nicklaus Signature Golf Course offers the perfect venue for a memorable golf break.

Kernow Course

Opened in 1976 The Old Course, as it was then called, quickly became a must play course and by 1979 was included amongst the elite by its inclusion on the European Tour with the hosting of the Benson & Hedges International Open. This was followed by two further tournaments as it played host to the Tournament Players Championship, which included a win for Bernhard Langer in 1983.

The Nicklaus Course

Celebrating it's 30th Anniversary in 2018 the Nicklaus Signature Golf Course opened for play in 1988 and is amongst the finest golf courses in Europe and certainly one of the most famous. The course was also the first European course personally designed by Jack Nicklaus.

The ISGA National Finals has now been selected to be a World ranking event, whereby players may be awarded points towards a world amateur ranking.

Sanctioned by the SPWAR

After the huge success of ISGA players playing against Universities in the UK with wins at all events. The ISGA now runs its own world ranking event

The Alexander Quin Invitational will have its 4TH event at Princes And Royal St Georges on 24-26 September 2018

The top finishing schools from the ISGA National finals will be invited to take part along with the top finishing colleges from the British Schools & Colleges National Finals, and the top University finalists from the BUCS league

With plans to expand the competition to include teams from Europe and the US in the next few years.
